Risk Management and Collateralization Principles

Risk management

ARTICLE 31 - (1) The risk management in the Market is performed by Takasbank. At-trade and post-trade risk management methods can be applied for the securities to which CCP service is provided in the Market. Takasbank may apply the pre-trade risk management method to ensure availability of sufficient collateral in the account by considering the possibility of orders to turn into trades during the transmission of orders.

(2) The settlement positions, guarantee fund contributions and collateral held in the accounts opened by the members at Takasbank shall be made subject to updating operation at least at the end of each business day by Takasbank.

(3) A margin call shall be issued for the accounts whose collateral fails to be sufficient as a result of the valuation being made. Margin calls shall be issued via the member screens provided by Takasbank and/or by way of reporting. If the margin call is sent through the system, the member shall be deemed to have received the call without any need for further notice and warning. The responsibility of the member starts upon receipt by the member of the margin call served by Takasbank.

(4) The members may fulfill their margin call obligations by depositing collateral or closing positions. Collateral deposit, withdrawal and valuation and account update and obligation fulfillment operations are performed on a position account basis. Intra-day and end-of-day risk management processes to be applied by Takasbank, the model and/or content of the parameters to be used in calculating the margins and the calculation methods and the margin call processes and the deadlines thereof shall be explained in the Procedure.

Risk limits

ARTICLE 32 - (1) In the Market to which it provides CCP service, Takasbank defines risk limits to the Members based on their financial capability. Risk limits can be determined separately for the Market but can also be determined in total for all markets to which CCP service is provided. Risk limits are determined over the margin requirements to be held due to the positions carried by the Members in the markets to which CCP service is provided.

(2) The limit determined on a member basis is notified by Takasbank only to the relevant member.

(3) Whether or not the member's total margin requirement resulting from all positions it has taken for itself and its customers in all markets to which CCP service is provided exceeds its risk limit is checked at the intra-day risk calculation times.

(4) The members may be allowed to exceed their defined risk limit up to a maximum rate to be specified in the Procedure provided that they deposit additional initial margin. Should the maximum rate specified in the Procedure be exceeded, it may be requested from the Exchange to prevent the member from sending orders to the Market regardless of deposition of additional initial margin. Covering the additional initial margins from the member's own assets or the assets on which the member has the right of disposition is a must.

CHAPTER SEVEN

Principles Regarding the Guarantee Fund

Guarantee fund and its general principles

ARTICLE 42 - (1) As part of the CCP service it will provide in the Market, Takasbank establishes a guarantee fund created by the contribution amounts of the members as to be used for any loss that might be incurred in case of default of the members and exceed the collateral of the relevant members. Participation of the CCP members in the guarantee fund is mandatory.

(2) The guarantee fund contributions of the CCP members are composed of the guarantee fund contributions deposited and the additional guarantee fund contributions to be deposited if requested by Takasbank. Should the Guarantee Fund be used in accordance with the provisions of the CCP Regulation, the Directive and the Procedure, the CCP members may be asked to deposit additional contribution provided it shall not exceed the deposited guarantee fund contribution amount. The members can be asked to deposit additional contribution at maximum four times in one-year period between 01 April and 31 March. The additional guarantee fund contribution that can be requested at once cannot exceed, for each member, the guarantee fund contribution amount calculated and required to be deposited for the month in which the defaults constituting the base of the request have occurred. The additional guarantee fund contribution amount can be requested either once as the entire balance of the deposited amount or at multiple times in tranches provided that it shall not exceed the aggregate of the deposited amount.

(3) For the CCP members requested to resign from the membership but whose requests have not yet been resolved by the Board of Directors or whose resignation request from the membership has been approved by the Board of Directors but have been allotted time for the return of their deposited guarantee fund contribution, the maximum guarantee fund obligation to which they may expose shall be either two-fold of the guarantee fund amount that should have been deposited as of the month on which the request was made in case of existence of no continuing default whose resolution still continues as of the request date, or shall otherwise be three-fold. Institutions considered to have resigned or requested to resign from the CCP membership to avoid from any possible guarantee fund obligation may not be re-accepted to the CCP membership.

(4) No recourse to the guarantee fund contributions of other Members can be made unless the trade margins of the defaulting Member, its guarantee fund contribution, and the collections to be made from its insurance policies, if any, and the capital allocation made by Takasbank for the covered risks in the Market become inadequate.

(5) In case of termination of the membership, the guarantee fund contribution shall be refunded in accordance with the provisions of article 33 of the Central Counterparty Regulation.

(6) The assets in the guarantee fund cannot be used other than for their intended purpose.

(7) The contribution amounts to be deposited to the guarantee fund by the members must be covered from the assets in their possession.

(8) The guarantee fund is represented and administered by Takasbank.

(9) The positions of the marketplaces/platforms and/or securities to which CCP service cannot be provided pursuant to the permission of the Board shall not be taken into account in the guarantee fund calculations.

Size of the guarantee fund and the contribution to be made by the members

ARTICLE 43 - The size of the guarantee fund cannot be less than the greater of the funding need that would arise in case of joint default of the member with the highest open position and the members with the second and third highest open position under the stress conditions. The funding need comprises of the portion of the members' risks calculated under the stress conditions and remaining out of the amount that can be covered by their trade margins. In estimating the risk under stress conditions through statistical methods, the statistical confidence level, the holding period and historical data stipulated in the Procedure shall be used as to be not less than 99.75%, 2 business days and 5 years respectively. Takasbank may set the minimum guarantee fund obligation as to be greater than the obligation calculated statistically by considering the market conditions, the margin concentrations and the adequacy of collateral management resources.

(2) Calculation of the total size of the guarantee fund is renewed provided that it shall not be less than 3 months, and the sufficiency of the existing guarantee fund is tested.

(3) The contribution to be made by the members to the guarantee fund is composed of the fixed and the variable contributions calculated pro rata to the risks they carry.

(4) The fixed contribution amount is determined at a level not to exceed the average amount found by dividing the required size of the guarantee fund to the number of members and announced in the Procedure.

(5) The variable contribution amount is calculated by Takasbank by taking account of the average collateral amount that the member must maintain in the market and announced through the member screens.

(6) The deposited guarantee fund contribution of a member cannot be less than the fixed contribution amount.

(7) The length of data set to be used in calculating the size of the guarantee fund to be established and determining the average market participation constituting the basis for the members' variable contribution amounts is explained in the Procedure.

(8) Guarantee fund contribution obligations are calculated at the first business day of each month and updated as of the following business day. The valued collateral amount corresponding to the guarantee fund contribution amount reflected to the accounts by Takasbank must be deposited to the accounts within the time period designated in the Procedure. The default provisions shall be applied for any amount failed to be deposited.

(9) The calculations of the members' guarantee fund contributions can also be made at any time by Takasbank irrespective of the date referred to in the eighth paragraph by taking account of the risk status of the relevant members and the market conditions.

Assets eligible as contribution amount to the guarantee fund and the obligation to restore contribution amount

ARTICLE 44 - (1) Assets eligible as contribution amount to the guarantee fund and the composition limits thereof are given in the following table. Takasbank Board of Directors is authorized to revise the composition limits of the assets to be accepted as guarantee fund contribution according to the market conditions and set composition limits for the new assets.

Assets eligible to guarantee fund	Group Limit	Sub-Group Limit (as percentage of Group Limit)
Cash Turkish Lira	Max. 100%	-
Convertible Foreign Currency (USD/EUR)	Max. 100%	-
Government Domestic Debt Securities	Max. 100%	50% (on ISIN basis)
Republic of Turkey Undersecretariat of Treasury Foreign Debt Securities (Eurobond)	Max. 90%	20% (on ISIN basis)
Lease certificates issued by the Republic of Turkey Undersecretariat of Treasury, Asset Leasing Company	Max. 90%	20% (on ISIN basis)
Equities (those included in BIST100 index)	Max. 20%	20%
Equity Umbrella Fund Shares	Max. 40%	20%
Debt Securities Umbrella Fund Shares	Max. 40%	20%

(2) The valuation haircuts representing the deduction rates to be used in calculating the collateral values of the assets to be deposited as guarantee fund contribution are explained in the Procedure.

(3) Composition limits are calculated over the total deposited contribution amount. In calculating the sub-composition limits, total valued portion of the relevant asset amount is taken into account.

(4) Non-cash assets used as guarantee fund contribution are made subject to valuation over the prices determined by Takasbank to ensure their valuation at current market prices.

(5) A margin call shall be issued to the accounts having a contribution deficit as a result of the end-of-day valuation. The contribution amounts must be restored until the end of the time period designated in the Procedure. The default provisions shall be applied for any amount failed to be restored.

(6) Non-cash assets in the Guarantee Fund can be replaced in accordance with the request of the Member.

Principles for use of the guarantee fund

ARTICLE 45 - (1) In default management, the non-defaulting members' non-cash contributions in the guarantee fund shall be started to be turned into cash when the funds available for use up to item (d) of the first paragraph of article 36 of Takasbank Central Counterparty Regulation fail to be adequate and upon determination that the guarantee fund contributions deposited in cash will remain insufficient.

(2) The contribution amounts deposited by the members joining to the guarantee fund after the date on which the relevant default has occurred or the contribution amounts deposited by the existing members against the risks they assumed after the occurrence of the default shall not be used.

(3) In cases which necessitate resorting to the guarantee fund, withdrawal of any contribution amount from the guarantee fund shall not be allowed during the time period to be elapsed until the loss incurred due to such default is fully covered.

(4) Resorting to the contribution amounts starts with the most liquid assets, and their ability to quickly be turned into cash shall be taken as the base. Cash amounts turned into cash from non-cash collateral in the guarantee fund but not used shall be returned pro-rata to the members whose non-cash collateral have been used.

(5) In distributing the loss attributed to the guarantee fund to the non-defaulting members, the shares of the members in the guarantee fund shall be taken as the base.

(6) The members are obliged to re-deposit, within 3 business days, their deposited guarantee fund contribution amounts being used in accordance with the default management.

(7) If the loss to be attributed to the guarantee fund seems likely to exceed 50% of the fund size, the members may be asked to deposit the additional contribution amounts they have committed. The members are obliged to deposit the additional contribution amounts within 5 business days after the request thereof. The additional contribution amounts not used either in part or at all for resolving the relevant default may be returned. If they, albeit requested, are returned without being used for resolving the default, the request for additional guarantee fund contribution shall be deemed not to have been made. The additional guarantee fund contribution amount that can be requested from a member in a month's time period cannot exceed the member's guarantee fund contribution amount calculated and required to be deposited for that month.

(8) If the additional guarantee fund contribution amounts requested from the members due to the default are used either in part or in whole, the members shall be asked to restore their guarantee fund obligations to the amount being calculated pursuant to article 43. The guarantee fund contribution amounts exceeding the maximum loss threshold that any Member would assume in the same month upon the default of other members shall only be used in the event of their own default until the end of the month. The standard guarantee fund contribution amounts to be requested from the members who have fulfilled their maximum additional guarantee fund contribution amount obligation within the one year period between the dates of 1 April-31 March shall only be used for their own default until such one year period is completed.

CHAPTER EIGHT

Should the event of default be failed to be resolved until the end of the allotted time period, Takasbank may place an order to the Market to close the position deficit arising from the default. In order for the order to be processed, the trade margin and guarantee fund contribution amounts of the member can be used in addition to its receivables kept blocked against its settlement debt.

(4) Default interest shall be applied in the event the settlement, collateral and guarantee fund obligations are failed to be fulfilled within the time periods set forth in the Procedure.

Asset default

ARTICLE 47 - (1) Without prejudice to the limits set forth in article 36 of the Central Counterparty Regulation, the financial liability of Takasbank for the asset defaults under the item (b) of the first paragraph of article 46 of this Directive shall be limited to the delivery of asset on the settlement date; and should the asset be failed to be delivered on the settlement date, to its delivery by accommodating it from the Market in accordance with the following principles and procedures; and if the asset is again failed to be delivered in that way, to the payment of the cash equivalent of the asset failed to be delivered being calculated based on the principles and procedures mentioned below plus the default interest to be calculated until the date on which the payment will be made.

(2) In the clearing and settlement operations, delivery of asset subject to settlement to the beneficiary member by Takasbank is essential upon default of the member obliged to deliver the asset.
